100 Dollars Reward.

I WILL give the above reward to any person who will return to my possession, negro LAWRENCE, who assumes the sirname of FENWICK. This fellow left my farm, on the Wicomico river, in Charles county, Md. on the 6th July, in consequence of his own outrageous conduct towards my overseer. He is a negro of a fine erect figure, good features, a smooth black skin, rather above the middle stature, of a youthful appearance for one of thirty years of age, and of great plausibility and natural smartness. His ears grow remarkably close to his head, and on the inside of his lower lip he has a white mark or spot. I purchased him 4 years ago of the estate of Mrs. P. H. Courts, of this county. I am led (by circumstances which have come to my knowledge since he absconded,) to believe that he will endeavor to make his way to King George county, Va. ; should he not take this route, he will probably be met with in the District of Columbia, or in the upper counties of this state, on his way to Pennsylvania. I apprehend he will change his name, and if committed to jail, refuse to state to whom he belongs, as the misconduct which preceded his departure, & his absconding, have all appeared since to have been premeditated. He took all his clothes with him, of which he had a large number ; among them—a new bear-skin over-coat, a long close-bodied blue coat, a pair of striped jean pantaloons, one or more white waistcoats, besides many articles of coarse cloathing ; these, however, he will probably exchange, or sell them for cash to defray his travelling expenses.

I will give the above reward to any person who will bring him home to me, or FIFTY DOLLARS if confined in jail, and notice given me, so that I recover him.—Should he be taken out of the state, I will also pay all reasonable costs and charges which may attend the bringing him home.

To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with ; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held ; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms ; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, aged about twenty three years, about five feet ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly : had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands ; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands ; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 21, 1819.

The secretary of the navy, Mr. Smith Thompson, accompanied by gen. R. Swartout, and Mr. Morris, left this city yesterday evening for New-York. We understand he will return here in the fall, with his family, to take up his winter residence.

It is stated in a late Natches paper, that hostilities have actually commenced between the Cherokee and Osage Indians.—It is added, that the Cherokees are the aggressors.

New-York, August 16.

We have seen a gent eman, who, on his return from the city on Saturday, to his seat, was stopped about three miles from the city, and ordered to deliver; and on giving his horse the whip, to escape, was fired on by the foot-pad. This is mentioned as a caution to those who may have occasion to be in the country after dark.

ANOTHER OF THE PIRATES TAKEN.

Messrs. Hubbard and Reckle came down the river yesterday, in the steam-boat Carolina, with another of the villains concerned in the murder and plunder on board the brig Ann, on the coast of Florida, who is now in safe keeping. [Gazette.

A letter from Darien, (Georgia) dated the 8th of August, received in Charleston, (S. C.) says—"I was in hopes I should have had the pleasure of informing you of having made captives of some persons, supposed pirates, owing to some suspicious circumstances attending the report of a brig being on our bar—from which it was said that a parcel of coffee and sugar had been brought up to town—the former said to be sold for 5 dollars per bag. The British consul, with several armed gentlemen, went down in search of the brig, to endeavor to find out what she was, whether a prize to a pirate or not—but the search proved fruitless, as she had disappeared the day before—it is supposed she is still hovering off the coast. Some of the crew are now in town, the vessel having left them."

The new steam boat Petersburg commenced her regular run between this place and Norfolk yesterday morning.

ALTERED BANK NOTES.

A paper printed at Beardstown, Kentucky, mentions, that a gang of villains from Canada and the western part of the state of New-York, have planted themselves on the banks of the river which forms the division line between Kentucky and Indiana, and are bartering bank notes, altered from one to twenty dollars for horses. Several farmers, unaccustomed to bank paper, have been deceived; and the horses thus obtained in one state were immediately conveyed to those of the other state for safety, until they could be exchanged for good money. Several horses has also been stolen, and in like manner conveyed from one state to the other. Three of the villains have been arrested, but eventually discharged for want of positive testimony.

Fredericktown, (Md.) August 7.

A FOUNDLING.

On Saturday morning last, a female child was found at the door of one of our citizens, residing in a retired part of the town. We are told by those who have seen this little unfortunate, that it is a fine, healthy, sprightly child, about six or eight years old. Considerable enquiry has been made, but without success, to discover its unnatural mother, and it is generally supposed to have been brought from a distance. This supposition is strengthened by a gentleman who came down the turnpike the day previous, and passed on the mountain a woman carrying a small child. With the child, was left a small bundle containing several articles of clothing neatly put up, and a patch work cradle quilt, some of which may possibly lead to a discovery of the wretched iron-hearted mother.

The trustees of the poor have provided a nurse fot the child, where it will be well taken care of until old enough to be weaned, when a humane, kind hearted woman, in very moderate circumstances, who has no child of her own, has offered to take charge of it and bring it up with a mother's tenderness and care.

The following dreadful transaction took place last week at Birmingham, England. A tradesman and his wife were at breakfast, when a dispute arose between them; words of a very improper nature were used, and the husband called his wife a w——e. She, in a violent passion, said, "if you dare to call me by that infamous name again I will cut my throat." The husband answered ironically, "Oh! my lady, if that is your intention, I will whet a knife for you;" which he actually did, & gave it to her. The moment she took the knife she made a deep incision with it in her throat, and though medical aid was called in immediately, she died on the following day. She was far advanced in pregnancy at the time, and was, previous to that period, a woman of excellent moral character.

To the editors of the New-York Gazette.

By inserting the following, you will confer a favor on a constant reader.

The Duellist, and who is he? The bold contemner of the laws of his country; who sets at open defiance the divine decree, and is the only person who appears innocent in the commission of crime. With hands reeking with the blood of an immolated human victim, he is received in the bosom of society, and highly esteemed as a man of honor. Can the pistol or sword be the criterion of honor? Can they wipe away the stain of a wounded reputation, or cleanse from guilt? Certainly not. It is a tribunal from which honor recoils, as being totally incompetent to decide her claim.—It cannot be considered a test of courage; much less replace a wounded reputation.

Let a parallel be drawn between the man of honor and the condemned malefactor—not a shade's difference is to be discerned; both of which cases are wholly repugnant to the divine law, for no circumstance can possibly render it necessary to take away the life of a fellow creature. It may be advanced, that the duellist gives his antagonist an equal chance, by exposing himself. This is, however, more specious than convincing. The motive which led him to the field, (and which alone is the moving cause,) was to take away the life of his opponent.

It may be observed, in answer to the apology, "that by exposing himself the deed may be paliated;" that being a moral agent, and of course an accountable being, he is no more authorised to expose himself unnecessarily, than to destroy a human being. This idea may satisfy the demands of a corrupted world, but can never silence the rebukes of an accusing conscience. It may for a moment, elate the ungodly votary of a depraved custom, but in the silent hour of reflection, (and that hour will arrive,) the burnings of remorse must consume the peaceful moments of his future life.

The peculiar secrecy with which matters of this sort are conducted, is, perhaps, one cause of their frequent occurrence.—The only remedy against this crying sin, is the steadfast and decided disapprobation of the community. —— REASON.

Bermuda, July 28.

The French ships of war, have been very active and vigilant the present season in cruising about the islands in quest of the pirates which have been such a terror and annoyance to the trade of the West Indies. The Americans have two or three of their national vessels cruising in the West Indies; and his majesty's maritime forces are very strong in those seas, particularly on the Jamaica station.

By the united vigilance of them all, we should suppose that scarce a pirate would dare venture out. We are happy to find that their exertions have not been unavailing. A Barbados paper of the 2th ultimo, says—"We are informed that his majesty's brig Fly, during a cruise to leeward, has lately captured two pirates, with which Captain Tomkins will probably proceed hither," (to Barbados). It is also reported that a Danish brig of war has taken another of these marauders.

From English papers received at the office of the New-York Gazette, per the ship Hercules.

London, June 19.

The earl of Liverpool, in the discussion yesterday in the house of lords upon the loan bill, repeated what had been stated by the chancellor of the exchequer, in the house of commons, "That he did not foresee that any future loan or funding would be wanted during the continuance of peace, and he congratulated the country on the termination of the practice of borrowing money by this means, as, by its incitement to gambling, he considered it most injurious to the pursuits of regular trade and industry." June 21.

The differences between Sweden and Denmark are said to have been adjusted, under the mediation of the great powers, at London. We are glad of it, for we believe Denmark has just cause of complaint. She is, by this arrangement, to receive a smaller sum than she had expected, but she is to receive it in a shorter time, and the payment is guaranteed to her. June 22.

The foreign enlistment bill was read a third time last night, in the house of commons, notwithstanding Mr. Waithman expressed his disapprobation of the measure. Sir W. Scott, in a luminous and argumentative speech, laid down the principles of neutrality, conformably to their elucidation by all the great public writers of Europe. There was a striking difference between his calm, dispassionate and irresistable appeal to the reason, and the florid declamation of a learned member, on a former night, whose harangue would have better graced a trial of academic skill than the solemn deliberations of a legislative assembly. It was emphatically observed by Sir W. Scott, that "there could be no solecism more absurd or more mischievous, than that a state could be at peace, and the individuals of it at war." This short sentence comprises the whole essence of the question and the bill that has just passed one house of parliament, is simply intended to protect us from so mischievous an absurdity. June 23.

This morning the Paris papers of Sunday last arrived at our office. The discussion was resumed in the chamber of deputies on the law of the budget. M. Delessert proposed the grant of one million to increase the compensation made to certain pensioners, and to the veterans of Alexandria and Juliers. The debate on this proposition was rendered interesting from the incidental notice taken by the minister of the interior of some expressions which were contained in a recent publication of M. Bignon, a member of the chamber, relative to the recal of the banished. In this publication, as appeared from the speech of the minister, M. Bignon threatened the government with a dreadful discovery, and with the existence of "some dangerous weapon which he would not employ for the honor of his government, but which he would use if the invincible obstinacy of the ministers should prescribe to him this rigorous duty." The minister implored M. Bignon to make known this dreadful danger, but the deputy persisted in keeping the secret, declaring that he would not reveal it, until in the chamber an address was proposed to the king, requiring the revocation of the law relating to the exiles—when, in short, he could produce the secret with advantage. To this the keeper of the seals replied, that M. Bignon was the best judge of his own conduct, but he hoped that if the hon. member were resolved to retain his important secret until the proposal of an address to the king in favor of the exiles, such an opportunity would never arrive. This expression was received with shouts of applause. The minister further declared, that the petitions presented in favor of the indiscriminate recal of the exiles proved the existence of a conspiracy hostile to the government. The members on the left side expressed violent indignation at this assertion, while those on the right vociferated "Yes! Yes!

Paris, June 10.

The King continues to enjoy the most favorable state of health.

The French Consul at Smyrna, who interfered in the recent dispute between General Savary and the Viscount de Fotte, has been recalled and succeeded by M. David, formerly Consul at Bucharest.

It is announced that the Marquis de Riviere, our Ambassador at Constantinople, also resigns his diplomatic mission. His successor is not yet mentioned. It is further added, that nearly all the agents of foreign affairs in the Levant, have been superseded. The Marquis de la Tour du-Pin also returns from the Low Countries. It is generally thought that he will be succeeded by the Marquis of Montalembert.

It is said that Count de la Ferronaye, Ambassador at the Court of Denmark, is appointed to the Embassy of St. Petersburgh.

His Majesty has erased Marshal Soult, Duke of Dalmatia, from the list of the 38 individuals included in the ordinance of the 24th July.

The London Observer, of June 20, after giving a statement of one year's sale of that paper, (which is printed on Sunday only) amounting to 602,224, papers, says—

"It may not be wholly uninteresting to the reader to know, that the amount paid to the revenue for six hundred & two thousand, two hundred & twenty-four stamps, was no less a sum than eight thousand and twenty-nine pounds, independent of the excise upon twelve hundred and four reams of paper at three pence each pound wt. and the duty of three shillings and sixpence upon every advertisement, making a total sum contributed to the revenue by the Observer journal, in one year, of about Ten Thousand Pounds, and that for only fifty-two publications."

THE LONDON MARKETS.

The improvement of trade in London, which follows, we copy from the London Courier of the 23d of June, the latest paper received by the Hector:—

London, June 22.

THE MARKETS.

There is a great improvement in trade; within the last few weeks more business has been done in Sugar, Coffee, &c. than for several months preceding.

SUGAR.

We noticed in our last publication the great appearance of a revival of trade, the event has realized the general expectation; the Muscovados during the last week continued brisk, and on rather an extensive scale, higher prices were realized; lately the purchasers would only buy parcels for immediate use; they are consequently, entirely out of stock, and they are now commencing to purchase freely.

There was a general expectation that from the late considerable imports of Sugar the market this morning would be plentifully supplied with new Muscovados; under this impression, at an early hour, there were extensive buyers at market; the result, however did not answer the expectation entertained; there was a very indifferent show of good Sugars, and as the trade were without stock, the demand became brisk and extensive, the good qualities being taken off at a very considerable advance as soon as exposed for sale; the purchases are estimated to exceed 2000 hhds and they would have been much more considerable had the supply been equal to the demand; the advance in the prices of Muscovados since this day week is fully 3s. per cent.

The Refined market has advanced very considerably, about 2s. last week, and yesterday and this forenoon the demand continued, and a further rise has been realized, making a general improvement of 3s. to 4s. on low goods, and 2s. to 3s. on the other descriptions, since our last, (Tuesday). The quantity of Refined at market is inconsiderable, and as the stock is in few hands, it is held firmly; the grocers are still the chief purchasers; the export request is however increasing, but the quantity ready is inadequate to the demand; and few goods can be expected for some weeks, and the refiners have lately been working on a very limited scale.—The request for Molasses has again revived, the prices continue to improve.

For foreign Sugars there are more enquiries, but few sales are yet reported.

Coffee.—There was a great revival in the demand and the prices of Coffee last week.—On Thursday, at the public sale, an advance of fully 2s. was obtained: on Friday the request became general and extensive, and in consequence of the renewed enquiries, the sellers refused to take the former prices; immediately offers were made at a further and considerable improvement, and on Saturday and yesterday the request continued, but without the former briskness; for St. Domingos, of fine quality, 1oos. was realized, and it is reported 1o2s. 6d. and 1o3s. was also refused; good ordinary Jamaica was sold at 95s. to 97s.; fine ordinary 1oos. to 1o2s.; the purchases of Coffee would certainly have been extensive, had not the holders suddenly determined not to sell, except at the great advance we have stated; and even where such prices were offered, it is reported the holders would not sell, in the expectation that the advance would be both immediate and considerable.

The market this forenoon continued in a very unsettled state; the public sale, however, which consisted of 137 casks and 246 bags enables us to give a correct account of the market, which may be stated at an irregular advance of 1os. to 15s. since this day week, averaging an improvement of fully 12s. per cwt. being an advance of fully 6s. per cwt. on any sales by private contract; middling Demerara and Berbice Coffee, which the previous week sold about 1o2s. to 1o5s. realized 115s. 6d. to 116s.; good middling sold at 119s. to 12os.; fine ordinary Jamaica realized 1o9s. which last week might be purchased at 95s. to 96s.

Gibraltar, July 9.

"Business very dull in this quarter, and in fact every where. We have a report, and I give it as such, that the troops at Cadiz, collected for the famous and long talked of expedition, absolutely refuse to embark, and have said to General O'Donnell they prefer remaining in Spain with him, and will not go; of course there are many conjectures and opinions as to the result—they intend marching, some say, for Madrid!—The treaty with Spain is not yet signed."

It is stated in a late Natches paper, that hostilities have actually commenced between the Cherokee and Osage Indians.—It is added, that the Cherokees are the aggressors.

New-York, August 16.

We have seen a gentleman, who, on his return from the city on Saturday, to his seat, was stopped about three miles from the city, and ordered to deliver; and on giving his horse the whip, to escape, was fired on by the foot-pad. This is mentioned as a caution to those who may have occasion to be in the country after dark.

ANOTHER OF THE PIRATES TAKEN.

Messrs. Hubbard and Reckle came down the river yesterday, in the steam-boat Carolina, with another of the villains concerned in the murder and plunder on board the brig Ann, on the coast of Florida, who is now in safe keeping. [Gazette.

A letter from Darien, (Georgia) dated the 8th of August, received in Charleston, (S. The British consul, with several armed gentlemen, went down in search of the brig, to endeavor to find out what she was, whether a prize to a pirate or not—but the search proved fruitless, as she had disappeared the day before—it is supposed she is still hovering off the coast. Some of the crew are now in town, the vessel having left them."

ALTERED BANK NOTES.

A paper printed at Beardstown, Kentucky, mentions, that a gang of villains from Canada and the western part of the state of New-York, have planted themselves on the banks of the river which forms the division line between Kentucky and Indiana, and are bartering bank notes, altered from one to twenty dollars for horses. Several farmers, unaccustomed to bank paper, have been deceived; and the horses thus obtained in one state were immediately conveyed to those of the other state for safety, until they could be exchanged for good money. Several horses has also been stolen, and in like manner conveyed from one state to the other. Three of the villains have been arrested, but eventually discharged for want of positive testimony.

A FOUNDLING.

On Saturday morning last, a female child was found at the door of one of our citizens, residing in a retired part of the town. We are told by those who have seen this little unfortunate, that it is a fine, healthy, sprightly child, about six or eight years old. Considerable enquiry has been made, but without success, to discover its unnatural mother, and it is generally supposed to have been brought from a distance. This supposition is strengthened by a gentleman who came down the turnpike the day previous, and passed on the mountain a woman carrying a small child. With the child, was left a small bundle containing several articles of clothing neatly put up, and a patch work cradle quilt, some of which may possibly lead to a discovery of the wretched iron-hearted mother.

The trustees of the poor have provided a nurse for the child, where it will be well taken care of until old enough to be weaned, when a humane, kind hearted woman, in very moderate circumstances, who has no child of her own, has offered to take charge of it and bring it up with a mother's tenderness and care.

The following dreadful transaction took place last week at Birmingham, England. A tradesman and his wife were at breakfast, when a dispute arose between them; words of a very improper nature were used, and the husband called his wife a w——e. She, in a violent passion, said, "if you dare to call me by that infamous name again I will cut my throat." The husband answered ironically, "Oh! my lady, if that is your intention, I will whet a knife for you;" which he actually did, & gave it to her. The moment she took the knife she made a deep incision with it in her throat, and though medical aid was called in immediately, she died on the following day. She was far advanced in pregnancy at the time, and was, previous to that period, a woman of excellent moral character.

To the editors of the New-York Gazette.

By inserting the following, you will confer a favor on a constant reader.

The Duellist, and who is he? The bold contemner of the laws of his country; who sets at open defiance the divine decree, and is the only person who appears innocent in the commission of crime. With hands reeking with the blood of an immolated human victim, he is received in the bosom of society, and highly esteemed as a man of honor. Can the pistol or sword be the criterion of honor? Can they wipe away the stain of a wounded reputation, or cleanse from guilt? Certainly not. It is a tribunal from which honor recoils, as being totally incompetent to decide her claim.—It cannot be considered a test of courage; much less replace a wounded reputation.

Let a parallel be drawn between the man of honor and the condemned malefactor—not a shade's difference is to be discerned; both of which cases are wholly repugnant to the divine law, for no circumstance can possibly render it necessary to take away the life of a fellow creature. It may be advanced, that the duellist gives his antagonist an equal chance, by exposing himself. This is, however, more specious than convincing. The motive which led him to the field, (and which alone is the moving cause,) was to take away the life of his opponent.

It may be observed, in answer to the apology, "that by exposing himself the deed may be paliated;" that being a moral agent, and of course an accountable being, he is no more authorised to expose himself unnecessarily, than to destroy a human being. This idea may satisfy the demands of a corrupted world, but can never silence the rebukes of an accusing conscience. It may for a moment, elate the ungodly votary of a depraved custom, but in the silent hour of reflection, (and that hour will arrive,) the burnings of remorse must consume the peaceful moments of his future life.

The peculiar secrecy with which matters of this sort are conducted, is, perhaps, one cause of their frequent occurrence.—The only remedy against this crying sin, is the steadfast and decided disapprobation of the community. ——— REASON.

Bermuda, July 28.

The French ships of war, have been very active and vigilant the present season in cruising about the islands in quest of the pirates which have been such a terror and annoyance to the trade of the West Indies. The Americans have two or three of their national vessels cruising in the West Indies; and his majesty's maritime forces are very strong in those seas, particularly on the Jamaica station.

By the united vigilance of them all, we should suppose that scarce a pirate would dare venture out. We are happy to find that their exertions have not been unavailing. A Barbados paper of the 2th ultimo, says—"We are informed that his majesty's brig Fly, during a cruise to leeward, has lately captured two pirates, with which Captain Tomkins will probably proceed hither," (to Barbados). It is also reported that a Danish brig of war has taken another of these marauders.

The improvement of trade in London, which follows, we copy from the London Courier of the 23d of June, the latest paper received by the Hector:—

London, June 22.

THE MARKETS.

There is a great improvement in trade; within the last few weeks more business has been done in Sugar, Coffee, &c. than for several months preceding.

SUGAR.

We noticed in our last publication the great appearance of a revival of trade, the event has realized the general expectation; the Muscovados during the last week continued brisk, and on rather an extensive scale, higher prices were realized; lately the purchasers would only buy parcels for immediate use; they are consequently, entirely out of stock, and they are now commencing to purchase freely.

There was a general expectation that from the late considerable imports of Sugar the market this morning would be plentifully supplied with new Muscovados; under this impression, at an early hour, there were extensive buyers at market; the result, however did not answer the expectation entertained; there was a very indifferent show of good Sugars, and as the trade were without stock, the demand became brisk and extensive, the good qualities being taken off at a very considerable advance as soon as exposed for sale; the purchases are estimated to exceed 2000 hhds and they would have been much more considerable had the supply been equal to the demand; the advance in the prices of Muscovados since this day week is fully 3s. per cent.

The Refined market has advanced very considerably, about 2s. last week, and yesterday and this forenoon the demand continued, and a further rise has been realized, making a general improvement of 3s. to 4s. on low goods, and 2s. to 3s. on the other descriptions, since our last, (Tuesday). The quantity of Refined at market is inconsiderable, and as the stock is in few hands, it is held firmly; the grocers are still the chief purchasers; the export request is however increasing, but the quantity ready is inadequate to the demand; and few goods can be expected for some weeks, and the refiners have lately been working on a very limited scale.—The request for Molasses has again revived, the prices continue to improve.

For foreign Sugars there are more enquiries, but few sales are yet reported.

Coffee.—There was a great revival in the demand and the prices of Coffee last week.—On Thursday, at the public sale, an advance of fully 2s. was obtained: on Friday the request became general and extensive, and in consequence of the renewed enquiries, the sellers refused to take the former prices; immediately offers were made at a further and considerable improvement, and on Saturday and yesterday the request continued, but without the former briskness; for St. Domingos, of fine quality, 1oos. was realized, and it is reported 1o2s. 6d. and 1o3s. was also refused; good ordinary Jamaica was sold at 95s. to 97s.; fine ordinary 1oos. to 1o2s.; the purchases of Coffee would certainly have been extensive, had not the holders suddenly determined not to sell, except at the great advance we have stated; and even where such prices were offered, it is reported the holders would not sell, in the expectation that the advance would be both immediate and considerable.

The market this forenoon continued in a very unsettled state; the public sale, however, which consisted of 137 casks and 248 bags enables us to give a correct account of the market, which may be stated at an irregular advance of 1os. to 15s. since this day week, averaging an improvement of fully 12s. per cwt. being an advance of fully 6s. per cwt. on any sales by private contract; middling Demerara and Berbice Coffee, which the previous week sold about 1o2s. to 1o5s. realized 115s. 6d. to 116s.; good middling sold at 119s. to 12os.; fine ordinary Jamaica realized 1o9s. which last week might be purchased at 95s. to 96s.

New-York, August 16.

We have seen a gentleman, who, on his return from the city on Saturday, to his seat, was stopped about three miles from the city, and ordered to deliver; and on giving his horse the whip, to escape, was fired on by the foot-pad. ANOTHER OF THE PIRATES TAKEN.

Messrs. Hubbard and Reckle came down the river yesterday, in the steam-boat Carolina, with another of the villains concerned in the murder and plunder on board the brig Ann, on the coast of Florida, who is now in safe keeping. [Gazette.

A letter from Darien, (Georgia) dated the 8th of August, received in Charleston, (S. The British consul, with several armed gentlemen, went down in search of the brig, to endeavor to find out what she was, whether a prize to a pirate or not—but the search proved fruitless, as she had disappeared the day before—it is supposed she is still hovering off the coast. Some of the crew are now in town, the vessel having left them."

ALTERED BANK NOTES.

A paper printed at Beardstown, Kentucky, mentions, that a gang of villains from Canada and the western part of the state of New-York, have planted themselves on the banks of the river which forms the division line between Kentucky and Indiana, and are bartering bank notes, altered from one to twenty dollars for horses. Several farmers, unaccustomed to bank paper, have been deceived; and the horses thus obtained in one state were immediately conveyed to those of the other state for safety, until they could be exchanged for good money. Several horses has also been stolen, and in like manner conveyed from one state to the other. Three of the villains have been arrested, but eventually discharged for want of positive testimony.

A FOUNDLING.

On Saturday morning last, a female child was found at the door of one of our citizens, residing in a retired part of the town. We are told by those who have seen this little unfortunate, that it is a fine, healthy, sprightly child, about six or eight years old. Considerable enquiry has been made, but without success, to discover its unnatural mother, and it is generally supposed to have been brought from a distance. This supposition is strengthened by a gentleman who came down the turnpike the day previous, and passed on the mountain a woman carrying a small child. With the child, was left a small bundle containing several articles of clothing neatly put up, and a patch work cradle quilt, some of which may possibly lead to a discovery of the wretched iron-hearted mother.

The trustees of the poor have provided a nurse for the child, where it will be well taken care of until old enough to be weaned, when a humane, kind hearted woman, in very moderate circumstances, who has no child of her own, has offered to take charge of it and bring it up with a mother's tenderness and care.

The following dreadful transaction took place last week at Birmingham, England. A tradesman and his wife were at breakfast, when a dispute arose between them; words of a very improper nature were used, and the husband called his wife a w——e. She, in a violent passion, said, "if you dare to call me by that infamous name again I will cut my throat." The husband answered ironically, "Oh! my lady, if that is your intention, I will whet a knife for you;" which he actually did, & gave it to her. The moment she took the knife she made a deep incision with it in her throat, and though medical aid was called in immediately, she died on the following day. She was far advanced in pregnancy at the time, and was, previous to that period, a woman of excellent moral character.

To the editors of the New-York Gazette.

By inserting the following, you will confer a favor on a constant reader.

The Duellist, and who is he? The bold contemner of the laws of his country; who sets at open defiance the divine decree, and is the only person who appears innocent in the commission of crime. With hands reeking with the blood of an immolated human victim, he is received in the bosom of society, and highly esteemed as a man of honor. Can the pistol or sword be the criterion of honor? Can they wipe away the stain of a wounded reputation, or cleanse from guilt? Certainly not. It is a tribunal from which honor recoils, as being totally incompetent to decide her claim.—It cannot be considered a test of courage; much less replace a wounded reputation.

Let a parallel be drawn between the man of honor and the condemned malefactor—not a shade's difference is to be discerned; both of which cases are wholly repugnant to the divine law, for no circumstance can possibly render it necessary to take away the life of a fellow creature. It may be advanced, that the duellist gives his antagonist an equal chance, by exposing himself. This is, however, more specious than convincing. The motive which led him to the field, (and which alone is the moving cause,) was to take away the life of his opponent.

It may be observed, in answer to the apology, "that by exposing himself the dead may be paliated;" that being a moral agent, and of course an accountable being, he is no more authorised to expose himself unnecessarily, than to destroy a human being. This idea may satisfy the demands of a corrupted world, but can never silence the rebukes of an accusing conscience. It may for a moment, elate the ungodly votary of a depraved custom, but in the silent hour of reflection, (and that hour will arrive,) the burnings of remorse must consume the peaceful moments of his future life.

The peculiar secrecy with which matters of this sort are conducted, is, perhaps, one cause of their frequent occurrence.—The only remedy against this crying sin, is the steadfast and decided disapprobation of the community. REASON.

Bermuda, July 28.

The French ships of war, have been very active and vigilant the present season in cruising about the islands in quest of the pirates which have been such a terror and annoyance to the trade of the West Indies. The Americans have two or three of their national vessels cruising in the West Indies; and his majesty's maritime forces are very strong in those seas, particularly on the Jamaica station.

By the united vigilance of them all, we should suppose that scarce a pirate would dare venture out. We are happy to find that their exertions have not been unavailing. A Barbados paper of the 2th ultimo, says—"We are informed that his majesty's brig Fly, during a cruise to leeward, has lately captured two pirates, with which Captain Tomkins will probably proceed hither," (to Barbados). It is also reported that a Danish brig of war has taken another of these marauders.

London, June 19.

The earl of Liverpool, in the discussion yesterday in the house of lords upon the loan bill, repeated what had been stated by the chancellor of the exchequer, in the house of commons, "That he did not foresee that any future loan or funding would be wanted during the continuance of peace, and he congratulated the country on the termination of the practice of borrowing money by this means, as, by its incitement to gambling, he considered it most injurious to the pursuits of regular trade and industry." June 21.

The differences between Sweden and Denmark are said to have been adjusted, under the mediation of the great powers, at London. We are glad of it, for we believe Denmark has just cause of complaint. She is, by this arrangement, to receive a smaller sum than she had expected, but she is to receive it in a shorter time, and the payment is guaranteed to her. June 22.

The foreign enlistment bill was read a third time last night, in the house of commons, notwithstanding Mr. Waithman expressed his disapprobation of the measure. Sir W. Scott, in a luminous and argumentative speech, laid down the principles of neutrality, conformably to their elucidation by all the great public writers of Europe. There was a striking difference between his calm, dispassionate and irresistable appeal to the reason, and the florid declamation of a learned member, on a former night, whose harangue would have better graced a trial of academic skill than the solemn deliberations of a legislative assembly. It was emphatically observed by Sir W. Scott, that "there could be no solecism more absurd or more mischievous, than that a state could be at peace, and the individuals of it at war." This short sentence comprises the whole essence of the question and the bill that has just passed one house of parliament, is simply intended to protect us from so mischievous an absurdity. June 23.

This morning the Paris papers of Sunday last arrived at our office. The discussion was resumed in the chamber of deputies on the law of the budget. M. Delessert proposed the grant of one million to increase the compensation made to certain pensioners, and to the veterans of Alexandria and Juliers. The debate on this proposition was rendered interesting from the incidental notice taken by the minister of the interior of some expressions which were contained in a recent publication of M. Bignon, a member of the chamber, relative to the recal of the banished. In this publication, as appeared from the speech of the minister, M. Bignon threatened the government with a dreadful discovery, and with the existence of "some dangerous weapon which he would not employ for the honor of his government, but which he would use if the invincible obstinacy of the ministers should prescribe to him this rigorous duty." The minister implored M. Bignon to make known this dreadful danger, but the deputy persisted in keeping the secret, declaring that he would not reveal it, until in the chamber an address was proposed to the king, requiring the revocation of the law relating to the exiles—when, in short, he could produce the secret with advantage. To this the keeper of the seals replied, that M. Bignon was the best judge of his own conduct, but he hoped that if the hon. member were resolved to retain his important secret until the proposal of an address to the king in favor of the exiles, such an opportunity would never arrive. This expression was received with shouts of applause. The minister further declared, that the petitions presented in favor of the indiscriminate recal of the exiles proved the existence of a conspiracy hostile to the government. The members on the left side expressed violent indignation at this assertion, while those on the right vociferated "Yes! Yes!

The French Consul at Smyrna, who interfered in the recent dispute between General Savary and the Viscount de Fotte, has been recalled and succeeded by M. David, formerly Consul at Bucharest.

It is announced that the Marquis de Riviere, our Ambassador at Constantinople, also resigns his diplomatic mission. His successor is not yet mentioned. It is further added, that nearly all the agents of foreign affairs in the Levant, have been superseded. The Marquis de la Tour du-Pin also returns from the Low Countries. It is generally thought that he will be succeeded by the Marquis of Montalembert.

It is said that Count de la Ferronaye, Ambassador at the Court of Denmark, is appointed to the Embassy of St. Petersburgh.

His Majesty has erased Marshal Soult, Duke of Dalmatia, from the list of the 38 individuals included in the ordinance of the 24th July.

The London Observer, of June 20, after giving a statement of one year's sale of that paper, (which is printed on Sunday only) amounting to 602,224, papers, says—

"It may not be wholly uninteresting to the reader to know, that the amount paid to the revenue for six hundred & two thousand, two hundred & twenty-four stamps, was no less a sum than eight thousand and twenty-nine pounds, independent of the excise upon twelve hundred and four reams of paper at three pence each pound wt. and the duty of three shillings and sixpence upon every advertisement, making a total sum contributed to the revenue by the Observer journal, in one year, of about Ten Thousand Pounds, and that for only fifty-two publications."

THE LONDON MARKETS.

The improvement of trade in London, which follows, we copy from the London Courier of the 23d of June, the latest paper received by the Hector:—

London, June 22.

THE MARKETS.

There is a great improvement in trade; within the last few weeks more business has been done in Sugar, Coffee, &c. than for several months preceding.

SUGAR.

We noticed in our last publication the great appearance of a revival of trade, the event has realized the general expectation; the Muscovados during the last week continued brisk, and on rather an extensive scale, higher prices were realized; lately the purchasers would only buy parcels for immediate use; they are consequently, entirely out of stock, and they are now commencing to purchase freely.

There was a general expectation that from the late considerable imports of Sugar the market this morning would be plentifully supplied with new Muscovados; under this impression, at an early hour, there were extensive buyers at market; the result, however did not answer the expectation entertained; there was a very indifferent show of good Sugars, and as the trade were without stock, the demand became brisk and extensive, the good qualities being taken off at a very considerable advance as soon as exposed for sale; the purchases are estimated to exceed 2000 hhds and they would have been much more considerable had the supply been equal to the demand; the advance in the prices of Muscovados since this day week is fully 3s. per cent.

The Refined market has advanced very considerably, about 2s. last week, and yesterday and this forenoon the demand continued, and a further rise has been realized, making a general improvement of 3s. to 4s. on low goods, and 2s. to 3s. on the other descriptions, since our last, (Tuesday). The quantity of Refined at market is inconsiderable, and as the stock is in few hands, it is held firmly; the grocers are still the chief purchasers; the export request is however increasing, but the quantity ready is inadequate to the demand; and few goods can be expected for some weeks, and the refiners have lately been working on a very limited scale.—The request for Molasses has again revived, the prices continue to improve.

For foreign Sugars there are more enquiries, but few sales are yet reported.

Coffee.—There was a great revival in the demand and the prices of Coffee last week.—On Thursday, at the public sale, an advance of fully 2s. was obtained: on Friday the request became general and extensive, and in consequence of the renewed enquiries, the sellers refused to take the former prices; immediately offers were made at a further and considerable improvement, and on Saturday and yesterday the request continued, but without the former briskness; for St. Domingos, of fine quality, 1oos. was realized, and it is reported 1o2s. 6d. and 1o3s. was also refused; good ordinary Jamaica was sold at 95s. to 97s.; fine ordinary 1oos. to 1o2s.; the purchases of Coffee would certainly have been extensive, had not the holders suddenly determined not to sell, except at the great advance we have stated; and even where such prices were offered, it is reported the holders would not sell, in the expectation that the advance would be both immediate and considerable.

The market this forenoon continued in a very unsettled state; the public sale, however, which consisted of 137 casks and 246 bags, enables us to give a correct account of the market, which may be stated at an irregular advance of 1os. to 15s. since this day week, averaging an improvement of fully 12s. per cwt. being an advance of fully 6s. per cwt. on any sales by private contract; middling Demerara and Berbice Coffee, which the previous week sold about 1o2s. to 1o5s. realized 115s. 6d. to 116s.; good middling sold at 119s. to 12os.; fine ordinary Jamaica realized 1o9s. which last week might be purchased at 95s. to 96s.

Boston, August 15.

The U. S. vessels of war Franklin, Guerriere, Erie and Spark, were at Gibraltar, on the 9th July, said to be waiting orders from America.

Prices at Gibraltar, July 9.

Valuable Land for Sale.

THE subscriber will sell at private sale, the tract of land on which he lives, containing about Fifteen Hundred Acres.

It joins the town of Warrenton, the seat of justice for Fauquier county—it is 42 miles from Alexandria, the city of Washington and Georgetown; 40 from Fredericksburg, and 45 from Winchester. This estate, in a neighborhood celebrated for health and good water, is well adapted to grazing and to the growth of corn and wheat. The turnpike road leading from Alexandria to Warrenton is finished, with the exception of seven miles. The improvements are a two story house, about fifty feet long, in the suburbs of Warrenton; two houses for overseers; a large barn, stables, and every necessary house for a farm. On the property are 3 good apple orchards, and a variety of other fruit trees. This tract is now divided into two farms—each of which has a superabundance of wood, and is laid off into six fields under good fences, with running water in every field. I believe there is a sufficiency of stone on the land to enclose the whole tract. Both farms have been under a course of clover and plaister for several years, by which they have been much improved, as the plaister acts with very great effect. The subscriber will divide the tract to suit purchasers. The terms are one third down, with an accommodating credit on the balance, if he sells a part; but only one fourth if the purchaser buys the whole tract, together with the stock of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, the farming utensils of every description, and all the provision that may be on hand for the support of the farm.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case: and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25

PROSPECTUS

Of a new periodical work to be published in the city of Washington, entitled the

Washington Theological REPERTORY.

EDITORS. { Rev. Wm Hawley, Washington,
Rev. Wm. H. Wilmer, Alexandria,
Rev. Oliver Norris, Alexandria,
Rev. Reuel Keith, Georgetown.

Assisted by several other literary gentlemen of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

IF any apology were necessary for this undertaking, it may be found in the fact, that there is no publication on a similar plan, in all that section of our country lying south of New-York, and but one in the whole of the United States. It has been matter of equal surprize and regret, that the Episcopal Church should be so far behind other Christian denominations, in similar efforts to disseminate the principles of religion and piety. At a period like the present, when the Lord is preparing his way on earth, by the most remarkable efforts of human agency, and the most wonderful operations of his providence and grace—when we perceive in every part of Christendom, a praise-worthy emulation to share in the glorious work of filling the earth with the knowledge of the only true God, and his Son Jesus Christ; it would seem criminal for any to withhold their exertions, however feeble, in the great enterprize of human happiness and salvation. The editors have, therefore, felt it their duty to make this humble effort to supply this acknowledged deficiency on the part of the church in this section of the country, and to bear their share in the common exertions of Christians to promote the Redeemer's Kingdom. And having obtained the services of a gentleman, in whose talents and principles they have confidence, whose time will be wholly devoted to the superintendence of the work, they feel encouraged to solicit the patronage of the public.

The publecation will be conducted under the immediate inspection and control of the above-named editors, who will form a committee to review every article intended for publication. The principles upon which it will be conducted are those of the bible, as illustrated in the articles, Liturgy and Homilies of the Protestant Episcopal Church. As members of this church the editors will feel bound to support the Apostolical character of her institutions, the pious tendency of her rites and ceremonies, and the evangelical nature of her doctrines. But in these, and all other discussions, they hope never to loose sight of that great law of charity which teaches us to "preserve the unity of the spirit in the bond of peace."

Acting upon those catholic principles, so long and so successively pursued by "The Christian Observer," their chief object will be to inculcate sound theological knowledge, and to delineate and recommend pure and vital religion. They trust therefore, that while the members of every Christian denomination may find something edifying and instructive, none will discover any just cause for offence in the pages of this work. General subjects of biblical criticism, practical illustrations of scriptural truth, the biography of illustrious persons, evidences of the truth of revelation, essays on the history and polity of the church, reviews of interesting publications, religious, literary and philosophical intelligence—in short, whatever is connected with the promotion of religion, humanity and literature, will find a place in this repository.

The testimony of experience supersedes the necessity of dwelling on the advantages of a periodical publication on the plan proposed. Its obvious tendency will be to render the various departments of religious knowledge more easy and accessible, and give a more ready currency and wider circulation, to those great truths which involve the present welfare and future destiny of man.

It will tend powerfully to stimulate the exertions of the editors, and console them under the difficulties attendant on the prosecution of this work, amidst many other avocations, should it prove the means under the blessing of God, of enriching any of its readers with the saving knowledge of Christ, and prepare them for a participation in the felicity and glory of his heavenly kingdom. With this hope they commit it into his hands, and confidently solicit their brethren of the clergy and laity to assist them in carrying into effect the objects of the undertaking.
